Nishin was from the generation of Nichiren disciples that had no direct connection with the founder or those who did. As other charismatic leaders in the Muromachi period, Nishin was greatly inspired by Nichiren, his endeavors and those of other disciples who did not spare their efforts to emulate him. Nishin became very inspired by the actions of Jogyo ' in Nichiyu, the third abbot of Hokekyoji. Nichiei as well as the fourth and fifth abbots at Hokekyoji have been very important for his upbringing as their own relationship to Nichiren was still concrete, albeit not direct. They had met a disciple of someone who actually knew Nichiren as it was the case of Nichiyu, a disciple of Nichiko who trained directly under Nichiren. The level of inspiration was still huge and even if the legends about Nishin ' s ordeals were probably produced afterwards by his successors, he was definitively an iconic and charismatic preacher.

Patrol Area 14 describes the submarine patrols from solitary patrols beginning in 1942 to aggressively patrolling the offshore waters, to bold approaches to harbor entrances, to sinking ships within sight of the islands in spite of determined Japanese air and sea anti-submarine efforts and supporting the US invasions of the islands in 1944.

In the meantime, she manages to piece together a strange, ever-changing puzzle—one that is built on lies and held together by years of sex and deception.
