Following Bowman v Fels [2005] 1 W.L.R. 3083, lawyers acting in the regulated sector are not bound by money laundering regulations in the course of contentious litigation or the consensual resolution of litigation. However, much transactional work remains subject to the regulations, and the Bar Council suggests that barristers should be cautious in deciding whether a particular piece of work falls within the boundaries of those areas that are caught by money laundering regulation.
