The Art of Loving argues that the active character of true love involves four basic elements: care, responsibility, respect, and knowledge. Each of these is difficult to define and can differ markedly depending on the people involved and their circumstances. Seen in these terms, love is hard work, but it is also the most rewarding kind of work.

First of all, Love is an Art and, as other arts, it can be divided into two important parts: The mastery of the theory. The master of the practice. For example, one can learn the theory of medicine but until one has practiced it and gained experience, one cannot claim overall mastery.

The Art of Loving ~ Is Love An Art? - Classical ...

The Art of Loving To love intelligently and fully is the result of a deliberate act, an intent that requires and, at the same time, demands excellence. If we just let ourselves go, acting passively and waiting for the other person to do and say everything, and also to reciprocate, then we will just end up completely frustrated.
